

First Impressions

written by Zel

Note to Tutor: These activities are focused on words.

When I arrived in Australia many years ago,
I have to admit that I was scared when we landed, as I didn't know what to expect.
We had been flying for 24 hours and I thought
“Dear God, I am at the end of the world”.

During our journey to our new home, everything I saw was like the bush.
It was like wasteland and I thought I would be living in the desert.

However, our new house was a very nice surprise – it even had a garden with a palm tree. I had never seen a palm tree before. I was so happy.

The next day we went to Rockingham Shopping Centre which I loved. I wanted to continue my career here as a hairdresser, so I asked for help with a volunteer tutor to improve my English literacy.

After six months with a tutor, I now have full-time work as a hairdresser. I know I still have more to learn. My impression now is that Australia is a great country to live in and I love the salon where I work.
